In the course of the struggle to seize power from the handful of Party people in authority taking the capitalist road the proletarian revolutionaries have used Mao Tse-tung's thought as a weapon to carry out a mass rectification campaign, in order to overcome such erroneous ideas as departmentalism, factionism, mountain-top-ism, decentralism, disorganisationism and ultra-democracy in their minds and in their organisations. These erroneous ideas can be boiled down to one thing - anarchism. This ideology may undermine the great alliance of the revolutionaries and bring down the proletarian dictatorship. There is great danger if this ideology is not overcome.

On the occasion of the rectification campaign by the revolutionary mass organisations, we dispatched large numbers of political and propaganda personnel to carry out realistic ideological and political work among the masses. Together with the proletarian revolutionaries, we creatively studied such glorious works by Chairman Mao as "On the rectification of incorrect ideas within the party", "oppose liberalism" and the three good old articles, in order to rectify our thoughts, organisations, and styles of work, bring down egoism, establish collectivism, seize power from egoism in our minds, master the four firsts, the three-eight practices, the three disciplinary rules and the eight points of attention, strengthen our organisational spirit and discipline, carry out sincerely Chairman Mao's policy on cadres, improve our knowledge about policy and establish the three-way alliance voluntarily and consciously. Through the rectification campaign, the revolutionaries summed up their experiences, surmounted their shortcomings and promoted the revolutionisation of their thoughts. In the course of the struggle shoulder to shoulder with the revolutionaries the great masses of the commanders and fighters of the PLA were also educated and tempered.

At present, the situation in Shansi is very good. The revolution is being carried out to greater and greater depth. There are more difficult and heavier tasks to be fulfilled by us. Not being reconciled to their defeat, the handful of Party people in authority taking the capitalist road will most assuredly put up a deathbed struggle. Chairman Mao taught us: "All the commanders and fighters of the PLA should by no means relax their combat-readiness for one moment. All ideas of relaxing one's combat-readiness and of taking the enemy lightly are erroneous." We must bear firmly in mind Chairman Mao's instructions in meeting new battles and winning new victories.
