workers said: "PLA comrades have worked hard together with us. This really warms our hearts no matter how hard we work and how tired we are." In the past few days, the workers of various factories, following the example set by the PLA members, have conscientiously worked hard to consolidate the dictatorship of the proletariat, thus continuously increasing production.

"The liberation Army should learn from the people of the country." The commanders and fighters of the unit have been greatly educated by the workers' fine ideas and work-style, many PLA units have held meetings to work out ways to learn from the working class. Workers have been invited to PLA units to lecture on their valuable advanced experiences in order to promote the revolutionization of such units.

Chekiang PLA Men Participate in Production Work

Hangchow, Chekiang provincial service 0400 gmt 25 July 75

Text of report:

In the upsurge to implement firmly the important instructions issued by Chairman Mao and the Party Central Committee, deepen study of the theory of the dictatorship of the proletariat, further carry out the policy of stability and unity and to strive to promote the national economy by the armymen and people throughout the province, commanders and fighters of the leading organs of Chekiang Provincial Military District and the PLA units stationed in Hangchow have inherited and developed the honourable tradition of the PLA and recently gone to a number of factories to take part in industrial productive labour, including Hangchow motor vehicle engine works, Hangchow joint meat processing factory, Hangchow (Hsiangyang) silk weaving factory, Hangchow embroidery factory, Hangchow knitwear factory, (Hsuehhsing) machinery works, Hangchow electric cable works, Hangchow cigarette factory and Hangchow general manufacturing works. They have fought side by side with workers to promote production, further strengthen Army-Government and Army-people unity, and promote the development of the excellent situation in both revolution and production.

Guided by the important instructions issued by Chairman Mao and the Party Central Committee, workers on the industrial and agricultural production front in Hangchow have won many successes in the wake of the development of the movement to study the theory of the dictatorship of the proletariat. A seething revolutionary situation prevails in the municipality.

Inspired by the excellent situation, leading members of the Party committee of the provincial military district have restudied Chairman Mao's related instructions on studying the theory of the dictatorship of the proletariat and reviewed the past glorious tradition of our Army in fighting the war by night and helping the people to promote production by day during the revolutionary war period. They have further understood the great significance of organizing commanders and fighters to take part in industrial and agricultural production, implementing the important instructions issued by Chairman Mao and the Party Central Committee, reducing the three major differences, promoting the revolutionization of units, further developing the excellent situation and consolidating and strengthening the dictatorship of the proletariat.

The Party committee of the provincial military district has held a special meeting to study and make arrangements to have commanders and fighters of various units take part in industrial and agricultural production. It issued a circular to various units on supporting the local people in summer harvesting and sowing tasks and also organized more than 4,500 cadres and fighters of the leading organs and the units stationed in Hangchow to take part in productive labour in a number of factories in the municipality. They were led by leading members of the provincial military district and departed in several groups beginning on 22nd July.